Dear Peter:

Thank you and David Aisenstat of the Keg Spirit Foundation for presenting your LifePilot workshop to students of the Entrepreneurship Program at University of Victoria Faculty of Business. Your workshop supports our vision to be an internationally recognized leader in business education. We appreciate your dedication to give back to the community and to give of yourself in sharing the lessons learned in your highly successful and exemplary business career! I would also particularly like to thank the Young Entrepreneurs Organization members of the Victoria chapter without whose participation, the success of the LifePilot Workshop would not have been possible.

My colleagues and I are especially excited about the mentor component that was incorporated into the LifePilot workshop program in September. Linking our students one-on-one to members of a team of successful entrepreneurs in the local community is an incredible opportunity for our students to learn about entrepreneurship first hand. What a powerful catalyst to build our future business leaders! We are all excited to see the results of the mentoring program as the mentors continue to support our students in their journey of entrepreneurial studies throughout the year.

We look forward to future LifePilot workshops at our University. We believe it will be an inspiration to our students and a benefit to the University of Victoria. I imagine students will be competing vigorously to get into the next LifePilot workshop!

Sincerely,

Ali Dastmalchian
